Tenancy agreement

Flat 4, 18 Ashfield Road, Bristol BS6 5TQ

Clause 1. The deposit of 1,430.00 pounds is held by the landlord under the Tenancy Deposit Scheme and is returned within ten working days of the end of the tenancy, less any deductions agreed in writing or ordered by the scheme. Either party may end this tenancy by giving two months written notice, which must not expire before the end of the fixed term, and the tenant returns every key on the last day.

Clause 2. The tenant keeps the flat in good repair, reports any damage to the landlord without delay, and pays for the repair of anything broken through neglect. The tenant does not sublet the flat, take in lodgers, or run a business from it without the landlord's written permission, which the landlord does not withhold without good reason.

Clause 3. The landlord insures the building but not the tenant's possessions, gives 24 hours notice before any inspection, and carries out repairs to the structure and the installations within a reasonable time of being told. The tenant keeps the garden tidy, puts the bins out on the day the council collects them, and does not keep any animal in the flat without permission.

Clause 4. Either party may end this tenancy by giving two months written notice, which must not expire before the end of the fixed term, and the tenant returns every key on the last day. The landlord gives the tenant a copy of the gas safety record and the energy performance certificate before the tenancy starts, and renews them when they expire.

Clause 5. The tenant does not sublet the flat, take in lodgers, or run a business from it without the landlord's written permission, which the landlord does not withhold without good reason. The tenant agrees to pay the rent of 1,240.00 pounds per calendar month in advance, on the first day of each month, by standing order to the account the landlord names in writing.

Clause 6. The tenant keeps the garden tidy, puts the bins out on the day the council collects them, and does not keep any animal in the flat without permission. The deposit of 1,430.00 pounds is held by the landlord under the Tenancy Deposit Scheme and is returned within ten working days of the end of the tenancy, less any deductions agreed in writing or ordered by the scheme.

Clause 7. The landlord gives the tenant a copy of the gas safety record and the energy performance certificate before the tenancy starts, and renews them when they expire. The tenant keeps the flat in good repair, reports any damage to the landlord without delay, and pays for the repair of anything broken through neglect.

Clause 8. The tenant agrees to pay the rent of 1,240.00 pounds per calendar month in advance, on the first day of each month, by standing order to the account the landlord names in writing. The landlord insures the building but not the tenant's possessions, gives 24 hours notice before any inspection, and carries out repairs to the structure and the installations within a reasonable time of being told.

Clause 9. The deposit of 1,430.00 pounds is held by the landlord under the Tenancy Deposit Scheme and is returned within ten working days of the end of the tenancy, less any deductions agreed in writing or ordered by the scheme. Either party may end this tenancy by giving two months written notice, which must not expire before the end of the fixed term, and the tenant returns every key on the last day.

Clause 10. The tenant keeps the flat in good repair, reports any damage to the landlord without delay, and pays for the repair of anything broken through neglect. The tenant does not sublet the flat, take in lodgers, or run a business from it without the landlord's written permission, which the landlord does not withhold without good reason.

Clause 11. The landlord insures the building but not the tenant's possessions, gives 24 hours notice before any inspection, and carries out repairs to the structure and the installations within a reasonable time of being told. The tenant keeps the garden tidy, puts the bins out on the day the council collects them, and does not keep any animal in the flat without permission.

Clause 12. Either party may end this tenancy by giving two months written notice, which must not expire before the end of the fixed term, and the tenant returns every key on the last day. The landlord gives the tenant a copy of the gas safety record and the energy performance certificate before the tenancy starts, and renews them when they expire.

Clause 13. The tenant does not sublet the flat, take in lodgers, or run a business from it without the landlord's written permission, which the landlord does not withhold without good reason. The tenant agrees to pay the rent of 1,240.00 pounds per calendar month in advance, on the first day of each month, by standing order to the account the landlord names in writing.

Clause 14. The tenant keeps the garden tidy, puts the bins out on the day the council collects them, and does not keep any animal in the flat without permission. The deposit of 1,430.00 pounds is held by the landlord under the Tenancy Deposit Scheme and is returned within ten working days of the end of the tenancy, less any deductions agreed in writing or ordered by the scheme.

Clause 15. The landlord gives the tenant a copy of the gas safety record and the energy performance certificate before the tenancy starts, and renews them when they expire. The tenant keeps the flat in good repair, reports any damage to the landlord without delay, and pays for the repair of anything broken through neglect.

Clause 16. The tenant agrees to pay the rent of 1,240.00 pounds per calendar month in advance, on the first day of each month, by standing order to the account the landlord names in writing. The landlord insures the building but not the tenant's possessions, gives 24 hours notice before any inspection, and carries out repairs to the structure and the installations within a reasonable time of being told.

Clause 17. The deposit of 1,430.00 pounds is held by the landlord under the Tenancy Deposit Scheme and is returned within ten working days of the end of the tenancy, less any deductions agreed in writing or ordered by the scheme. Either party may end this tenancy by giving two months written notice, which must not expire before the end of the fixed term, and the tenant returns every key on the last day.

Clause 18. The tenant keeps the flat in good repair, reports any damage to the landlord without delay, and pays for the repair of anything broken through neglect. The tenant does not sublet the flat, take in lodgers, or run a business from it without the landlord's written permission, which the landlord does not withhold without good reason.

Clause 19. The landlord insures the building but not the tenant's possessions, gives 24 hours notice before any inspection, and carries out repairs to the structure and the installations within a reasonable time of being told. The tenant keeps the garden tidy, puts the bins out on the day the council collects them, and does not keep any animal in the flat without permission.

Clause 20. Either party may end this tenancy by giving two months written notice, which must not expire before the end of the fixed term, and the tenant returns every key on the last day. The landlord gives the tenant a copy of the gas safety record and the energy performance certificate before the tenancy starts, and renews them when they expire.

Clause 21. The tenant does not sublet the flat, take in lodgers, or run a business from it without the landlord's written permission, which the landlord does not withhold without good reason. The tenant agrees to pay the rent of 1,240.00 pounds per calendar month in advance, on the first day of each month, by standing order to the account the landlord names in writing.

Clause 22. The tenant keeps the garden tidy, puts the bins out on the day the council collects them, and does not keep any animal in the flat without permission. The deposit of 1,430.00 pounds is held by the landlord under the Tenancy Deposit Scheme and is returned within ten working days of the end of the tenancy, less any deductions agreed in writing or ordered by the scheme.

Clause 23. The landlord gives the tenant a copy of the gas safety record and the energy performance certificate before the tenancy starts, and renews them when they expire. The tenant keeps the flat in good repair, reports any damage to the landlord without delay, and pays for the repair of anything broken through neglect.

Clause 24. The tenant agrees to pay the rent of 1,240.00 pounds per calendar month in advance, on the first day of each month, by standing order to the account the landlord names in writing. The landlord insures the building but not the tenant's possessions, gives 24 hours notice before any inspection, and carries out repairs to the structure and the installations within a reasonable time of being told.

Clause 25. The deposit of 1,430.00 pounds is held by the landlord under the Tenancy Deposit Scheme and is returned within ten working days of the end of the tenancy, less any deductions agreed in writing or ordered by the scheme. Either party may end this tenancy by giving two months written notice, which must not expire before the end of the fixed term, and the tenant returns every key on the last day.

Clause 26. The tenant keeps the flat in good repair, reports any damage to the landlord without delay, and pays for the repair of anything broken through neglect. The tenant does not sublet the flat, take in lodgers, or run a business from it without the landlord's written permission, which the landlord does not withhold without good reason.

Clause 27. The landlord insures the building but not the tenant's possessions, gives 24 hours notice before any inspection, and carries out repairs to the structure and the installations within a reasonable time of being told. The tenant keeps the garden tidy, puts the bins out on the day the council collects them, and does not keep any animal in the flat without permission.

Clause 28. Either party may end this tenancy by giving two months written notice, which must not expire before the end of the fixed term, and the tenant returns every key on the last day. The landlord gives the tenant a copy of the gas safety record and the energy performance certificate before the tenancy starts, and renews them when they expire.

Clause 29. The tenant does not sublet the flat, take in lodgers, or run a business from it without the landlord's written permission, which the landlord does not withhold without good reason. The tenant agrees to pay the rent of 1,240.00 pounds per calendar month in advance, on the first day of each month, by standing order to the account the landlord names in writing.

Clause 30. The tenant keeps the garden tidy, puts the bins out on the day the council collects them, and does not keep any animal in the flat without permission. The deposit of 1,430.00 pounds is held by the landlord under the Tenancy Deposit Scheme and is returned within ten working days of the end of the tenancy, less any deductions agreed in writing or ordered by the scheme.

Clause 31. The landlord gives the tenant a copy of the gas safety record and the energy performance certificate before the tenancy starts, and renews them when they expire. The tenant keeps the flat in good repair, reports any damage to the landlord without delay, and pays for the repair of anything broken through neglect.

Clause 32. The tenant agrees to pay the rent of 1,240.00 pounds per calendar month in advance, on the first day of each month, by standing order to the account the landlord names in writing. The landlord insures the building but not the tenant's possessions, gives 24 hours notice before any inspection, and carries out repairs to the structure and the installations within a reasonable time of being told.

Clause 33. The deposit of 1,430.00 pounds is held by the landlord under the Tenancy Deposit Scheme and is returned within ten working days of the end of the tenancy, less any deductions agreed in writing or ordered by the scheme. Either party may end this tenancy by giving two months written notice, which must not expire before the end of the fixed term, and the tenant returns every key on the last day.

Clause 34. The tenant keeps the flat in good repair, reports any damage to the landlord without delay, and pays for the repair of anything broken through neglect. The tenant does not sublet the flat, take in lodgers, or run a business from it without the landlord's written permission, which the landlord does not withhold without good reason.

Clause 35. The landlord insures the building but not the tenant's possessions, gives 24 hours notice before any inspection, and carries out repairs to the structure and the installations within a reasonable time of being told. The tenant keeps the garden tidy, puts the bins out on the day the council collects them, and does not keep any animal in the flat without permission.

Clause 36. Either party may end this tenancy by giving two months written notice, which must not expire before the end of the fixed term, and the tenant returns every key on the last day. The landlord gives the tenant a copy of the gas safety record and the energy performance certificate before the tenancy starts, and renews them when they expire.

Signed for the landlord and by the tenant on 1 April 2026.